Maison Berdoues has been developing perfumed creations for more than a hundred years, applying French high perfumery's hallowed practices. The fragrances are the result of a unique know-how and an uncompromising stance.

Our Collection Grands Crus is an art form creating unusual fragrant experiences of travels through the world's most beautiful destinations.

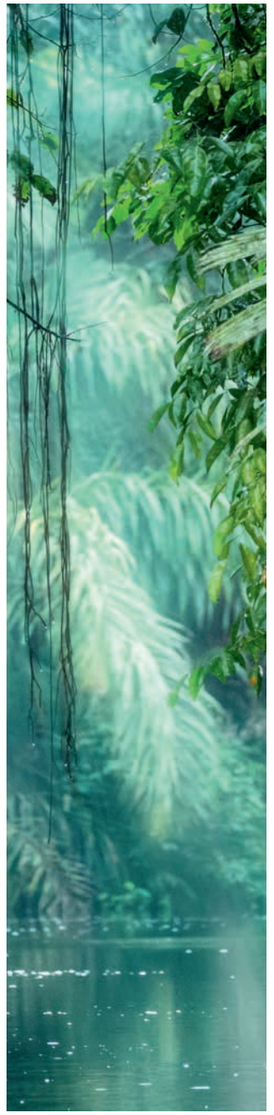
A perfume from somewhere special that melds with you, revealing its identity as it achieves its full expression on your skin to create a fragrance that is quite unique to you.

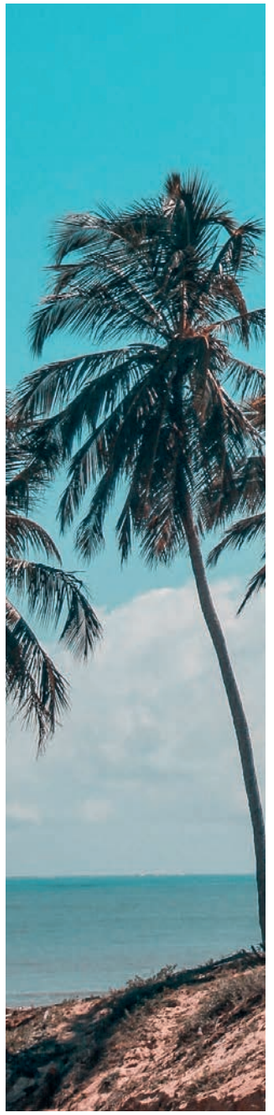
THE CONCEPT

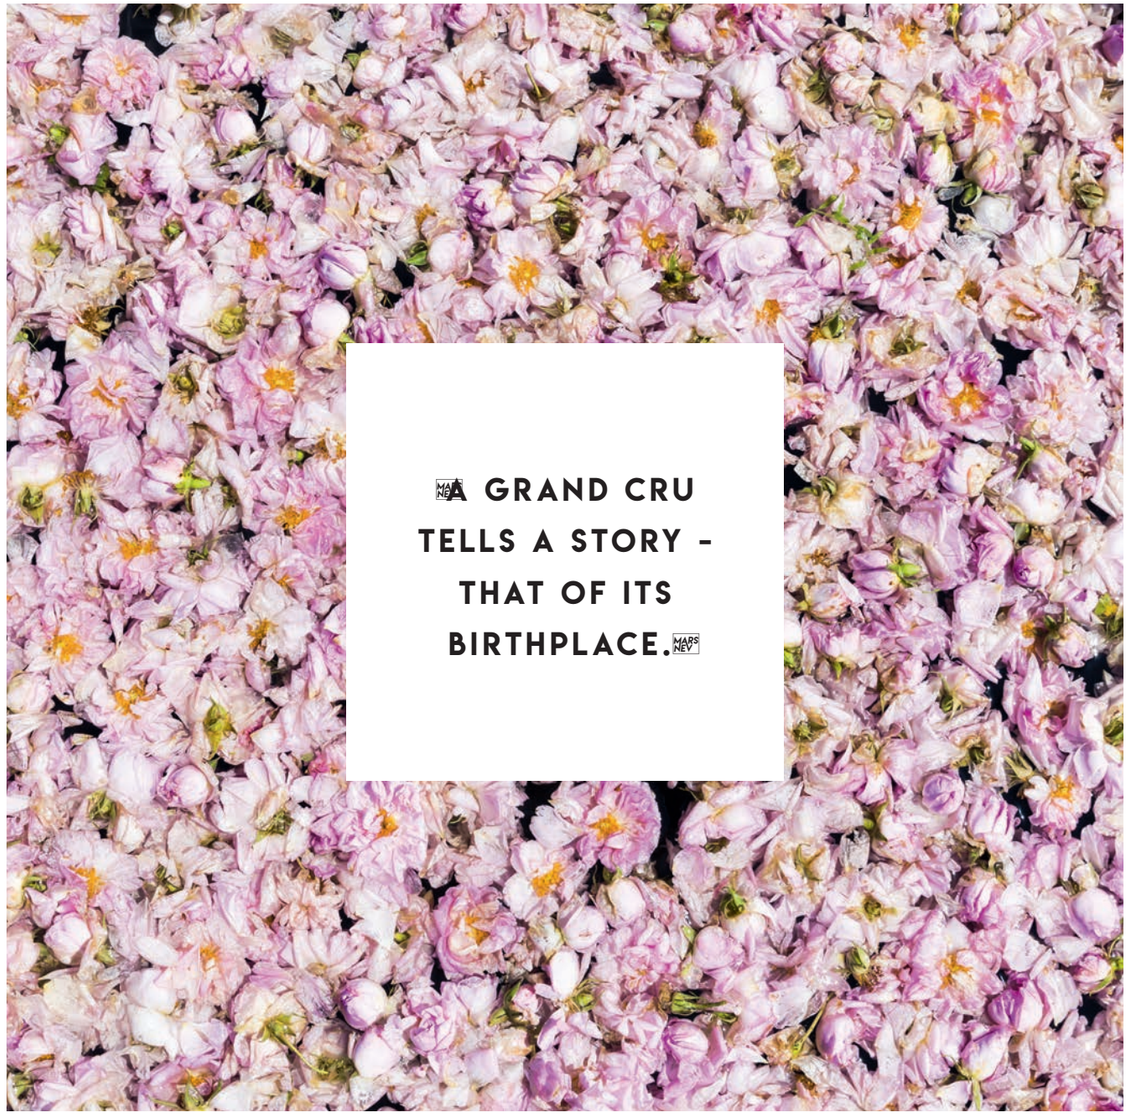
Each scent opens up to the imaginary and offers a unique interpretation of its olfactory identity. Our perfumers have composed a harmonious palette, giving birth to deliciously complex full and balanced collection of fragrances. Each offering incomparable roundness and intensity that remains intact as the hours drift by.

The very first waft conjures up a voyage, an immersion… The essence of a country through the evocative power of a perfume that sirs the memory or kindles the imagination. Then subtle nuances - woody, fruity, floral or spicy - emerge in aromas of extreme delicacy.

A line of perfume collection combining elegance and refinement. For men and women searching for sublime authentic emotions… That only Grands Crus can provide.







THE VALUES

A collection of rare character has been distilled from this garnering and through the expertise of our perfumers.

Our missions : to select noble materials, to find the richest variety, to seek out every specific substance where it is found in its purest form, and where it naturally delivers the most exquisite aroma.

Extended steeping in our vats ensures that each Grand Cru releases its character, intensity and personality.
